Every day is the same
Clock in, clock out
I don't even care the pay
It's just not worth it

I wish that I could escape
"Do this and do that"
Gimme another sick day
Unmotivated

I know that I can do better
I know that I can do better

So I gotta keep knowingly jumping into the fire
I'm fanning the flame and I can't just ignore the desire
I can't quench the fire

Why's it hard to let go
Day in, day out?
I dream of flying away
Chasing passion

I'm torn apart, I can't choose
Do great or who cares?
It's just one life and I can't
Let it fade out

I know that I can do better
I know that I can do better

So I gotta keep knowingly jumping into the fire
I'm fanning the flame and I can't just ignore the desire
My mind's conflicted, but my heart don't lie
I think it's time to let this caged bird fly
So tonight is the night that I'm letting my heart take me higher
I can't quench the fire

I wish I could do more
But the truth is I get bored

So I gotta keep knowingly jumping into the fire
I'm fanning the flame and I can't just ignore the desire
My mind's conflicted, but my heart don't lie
I think it's time to let this caged bird fly
So tonight is the night that I'm letting my heart take me higher
I can't quench the fire
I can't quench the fire
