I've tried to see your side
I've been living it all my life
But your lies began to fade
Once I crawled outside that cage

Now I'm awake
I see the deceit and I'm feeling the sting
Oh I just can't take
The way you resent me as soon as I walk away

Cause you're so despicable
And I'm done so
Don't ask me to fight
I'm on a roll
Gotta let you go
I'm over your type
So conditional, despicable

Accepted or declined
You've been tampering with my mind
Gotta make yourself feel whole
Whatever keeps you in control

Like it or not
We're all just the same, but you need me to blame
Oh I just can't fake
Pretending's the game, but it's not the one I'm gonna play

So despicable
And I'm done so
Don't ask me to fight
I'm on a roll
Gotta let you go
I'm over your type
So conditional, despicable

You've lived, but I've learned
You've touched, but I've burned

This life that you love
Sent straight from above
But was it enough

So despicable
And I'm done so
Don't ask me to fight

Cause you're so despicable, ahhhhhhh
