Is it heavy enough for you?
Tell me, does it catch your cheek on a hook?
So am I just a doll waiting on your call?
Why do you only criticize me?
Cause you were never enough?

I'll tell you right now, I'm not gonna change
Try pushing me down, you'll see just how I'm made

I'm getting reckless again
Feeling a little aggressive, man
Don't try chewing me up, spitting me out
I'll never change for you
I'm just letting you know, For the Record

Is it sexy enough for you?
Tell me, does it paint your eyes with gold?
So am I just a pawn you're playing for the win?
Do you only call my name cause you were never enough?

I'll tell you right now, I'm not gonna change
Try pushing me down, you'll see just how I'm made
I'll tell you right now, I'm not gonna change
Try pushing me down, you'll see just how I'm made

I'm getting reckless again
Feeling a little aggressive, man
Don't try chewing me up, spitting me out
I'll never change for you
I'm just letting you know
Yeah, I am letting you know For the Record

In fact, I'm doing you a favor
No need to read between the lines

I'll tell you right now, I'm not gonna change
Try pushing me down, you'll see just how I'm made

I'm getting reckless again
Feeling a little aggressive, man
Don't try chewing me up, spitting me out
I'll never change for you

There's no compromise
Unbreakable ties sit wide and heavy
I won't tell you again, I gave you a hint
You'll never own me
I'm just letting you know, For the Record
