I found you just before you left
Your tongue to taste a final breath
I could see the death in you and me

The room was more than torn apart
Like shreds of paper in a storm
Trust in me
I'll calm your world, the seas

Horrors you laid your eyes upon
Scars made don't fade, but carry-on
The past is sealed, but what's ahead is real

Beasts come in many shapes and forms
Some offer gifts before they turn
To make you think that you owe something you don't

But I know, I know you can't say
So show me, show me in any way
How I can help you to get away
I know, I know you can't say
So show me, show me in any way
How I can help you to get away

What was it like to be a slave?
Forced into fame, yet hid away
From all the eyes that could've made a change

Lies piled so high you couldn't breathe
So far fetched no one would believe
That you were more than what she made it seem

But I know, I know you can't say
So show me, show me in any way
How I can help you to get away
I know, I know you can't say
So show me, show me in any way
How I can help you to get away
Hell has come today

I know it's hard to say
She wrecked your life in oh so many ways
Let me try to understand

Cause I know, I know you can't say
So show me, show me in any way
How I can help you to get away

Help me, help me I'm handcuffed
I'm not, I'm not strong enough
To break the chains and make a great escape
Get away, to help you get away
