Try to hide, let no one see
All the things you've heard about me

Can't deny your lustful life
I see what you have held in your hand
Spin your lies like spiders' web
Clutch it, feed it, hide it from them

Tell us what you know
Show us what you've seen
Don't use that wicked smile to cloud
The judgement of your scheme

You're a Pretty Little Liar
You bat one eyelash and now you're
Now you're off the hook for what you claim is fabrication
Pretty Little Liar

Just believe what you need
Claw the truth til blood's in your hands
Lies, deceit, don't know defeat
Slither in and out of your game

Tell us everything

You're a Pretty Little Liar
You bat one eyelash and now you're
Now you're off the hook for what you claim is fabrication
Pretty Little Liar

I see you
You're see-through
I'll get to the bottom, unveil you
What have you done before us? You've fallen short again

You're just a Pretty Little Liar
You bat one eyelash and now you're
Now you're off the hook for what you claim is fabrication
Pretty Little Liar
