Bombs away
Another fallen soldier of your love brigade
Another rose to fade from cherry red to grey
And all your life is a sad parade
And can I say

Point your gun and tell me it's over
I'm not done, look over your shoulder
More will come
But try to remember
There's no hope for a Repeat Offender

Here we are
Back to the beginning with a brand new scar
And so much baggage I see how you sink so far
So far down, will you look around
Feel the sound

Point your gun and tell me it's over
I'm not done, look over your shoulder
More will come, but try to remember there's no hope for a
Repeat Offender
Point your gun and tell me it's over
I'm not done, look over your shoulder
More will come
So try to remember there's no hope for a Repeat Offender
