I walk right in to another one
And it's already begun
I've changed my mind
I'm having none of this
And I'm leaving you behind

You don't get it, I won't forget
You don't get it, I won't forget
(Yes, I'm leaving you behind)
You don't get it, I won't forget
You don't get it

And if it feels so good when you Walk Away
Can you really say that you oughta stay?
Cause I don't care if you Walk Away
It's a better day, and I'm not afraid
Walk Away, just Walk Away

I made my choice before I ever knew
That I only love the truth
My eyes tell lies
You were so beautiful
When you had on your disguise

You don't get it, I won't forget
You don't get it, I won't forget
(When you had on your disguise)
You don't get it, I won't forget
You don't get it

And if it feels so good when you Walk Away
Can you really say that you oughta stay?
Cause I don't care if you Walk Away
It's a better day, and I'm not afraid
Walk Away

You don't get it, I won't forget
(I don't mind)

And if it feels so good when you Walk Away
Can you really say that you oughta stay?
Cause I don't care if you Walk Away
It's a better day, and I'm not afraid

If it feels so good when you Walk Away
Can you really say that you oughta stay?
Cause I don't care if you Walk Away
It's a better day, and I'm not afraid
Walk Away, just Walk Away
