The Only One

Brother Dan has got a gun

Pretty soon the time will come

Eddie's leaving him a trail

Got his eye on Leah's well

She's an independent soul

With a taste for rock 'n' roll

Ricky's playing on the town

And the wife's never around

So throw a stone if you're the only one

Show us how it's done

Nothing to hide

Cause you're the only one

Ricky's cheating on his wife

Thought she'd liven up his life

Leah leaves her kids alone

Steakout sees that she ain't home

Eddie's got some debts to pay

Get in quick and get away

Brother Dan's not standing down

Blows that young man to the ground

So throw a stone if you’re the only one

Show us how it’s done

Nothing to hide

Throw a stone if you’re the only one

What’s locked up at home

I’m looking inside

Cause you’re the only one

File them in and watch them squirm

First the witch, let’s see her burn

Bring the thief and tie him down

Sleeves rolled back, the knife comes down

Pierce the soul that wears the crown

So throw a stone if you’re the only one

Show us how it’s done

Nothing to hide

Throw a stone if you’re the only one

What’s locked up at home

I’m looking inside

Cause you’re the only one

Show me how it’s done

Show me how it’s done
